Bilateral Meetings

- Thursday 09:30 - 15:30

Description

The AKOVA GROUP is comprised of three complementary companies seated in three different buildings: Akova Impex, Meat Industry Ovako and Brovis.

The Akova Impex deals with sales and distribution and places more than one hundred different Ovako (meat processing production) and Brovis (chicken meat production) products on the market. All the products, including the chicken are sold under the renowned Ovako brand. From its establishment onwards, the group has continuously worked on developing and expanding the production line, satisfying customer needs and expanding the market outside the state boundaries. During its 12 years of operation, the group has achieved significant results and proved that it deserves to hold the leaders position in the meat processing industry in BiH.

The carefully designed infrastructure enables the organization of production in line with the EU requirements and standards. Modern technology and top-notch equipment are a guarantee of high quality and hygienic and sanitary soundness. Evidence to the aforementioned is viewed in the implementation and certification of numerous standards, with HALAL and HACCP just to name a few.

Ovako brand products are intended for all age groups and may be used to make a delicious and healthy meal in no time. All the products are safe and sound owing to the continuity in the overall production process which stands as a guarantee to all consumers that they can completely trust and enjoy in our meat products.
