Bilateral Meetings

- Thursday 09:30 - 15:30

Description

More than 1800 employees from 29 biggest software engineering companies, have been united since 2014 under BIT Alliance, the head organization of software industry in B&H. Each day, we are lead by single minded goal - to develop more opportunities at the software industry market, by dealing with numerous obstacles that are slowing down it's growth. In order to develop positive business environment for further growth of B&H software industry, BIT Alliance continuously works on resolving two biggest issues that software companies are experiencing every day - the lack of highly skilled employees and poorly developed software industry infrastructure, accompanied with lack of development incentives.
