WELCOME TO SARAJEVO

A corridor between East and West!

Half a millennium ago in Bosnia, a town was founded, nestled in the valley below Mt. Trebevic. Its name was derived from either a palace in the fields or the fields around that palace. Bosnian Sanjak-Bey Isabeg Ishakovic erected that palace on the banks of the Miljacka River, built an iconic bridge and developed a bazaar.

Sarajevo has always been an intersection of important roads from Eastern to Western Europe and from the Mediterranean Basin to Central Europe. For centuries, this city, in the context of different historical events, has been both a shelter and a crossroads of cultures. It was connected to Istanbul, Zagreb, Cetinje, Belgrade, Vienna, Budapest, and Jerusalem. These connections shaped Sarajevo into a place for the Orient and Occident to clash and merge.

After its establishment in 1462, Sarajevo became the provincial seat of the Ottoman Empire for over four centuries. During the Austro-Hungarian occupation, it served as the monarchy's seat of the Provincial Government of Bosnia and Herzegovina. It has been the capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina since 1945.

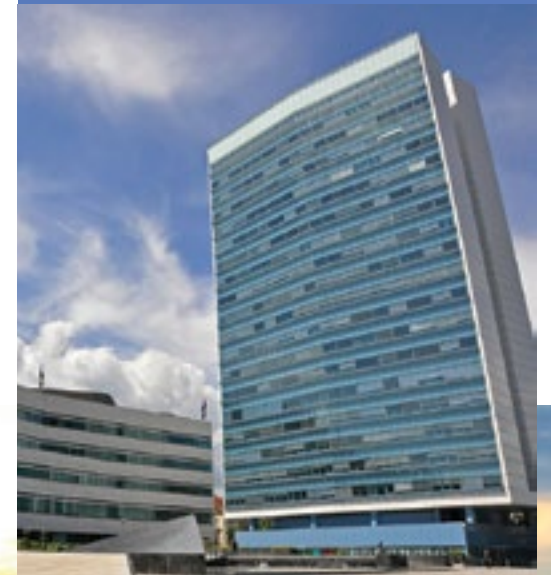

We are honored to invite you to participate in and sponsor the 9th International Business and Investment Conference - Sarajevo Business Forum (SBF) 2018. The Forum will be held on the 25th and 26th of April, 2018 in Sarajevo, the capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Day one will be hosted at the Bosnia and Herzegovina Parliament Building, while day two will be hosted at the Congress Centre of Hotel Hills in Sarajevo.

SBF 2018 will showcase projects and business opportunities from IT, the digital economy, tourism, education, sports, culture, agriculture, energy, finance, infrastructure, construction, services and other industries.
